INTERVIEW

Among the Prosecco Hills of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene, in the Veneto region of Italy, Prosecco is a true passion. Its lively and beloved bubbles embody a contemporary spirit of gathering and sharing. Cantine Maschio is the signature of excellence from a land that knows how to enchant.

Cantine Maschio was founded in 1973 in Visnà (TV - Italy), in a production area that made Prosecco wine famous all over the world. Over the decades, the company has established itself as a leading player in the industry, producing Sparkling Wines, Prosecco, and Spumante of great charm and quality.

Cantine Maschio, together with Cantine Cavicchioli, is part of the Cantine Riunite & Civ group (RE - Italy). The group, founded in 1950 as an agricultural cooperative, is now a world leader with a total production of about 140 million bottles per year of sparkling and spumante wines.

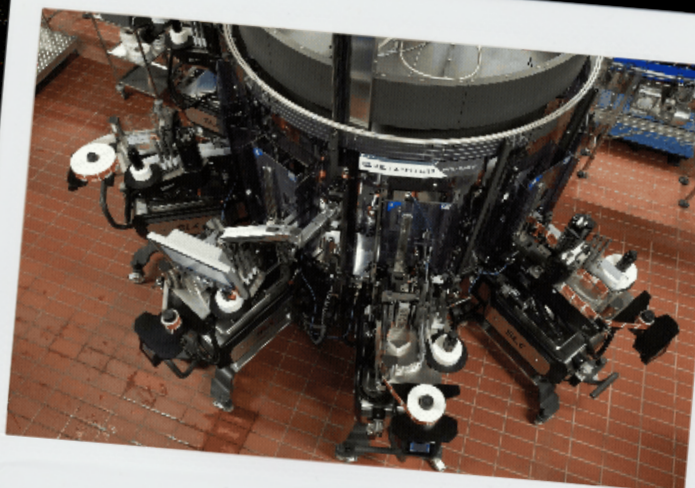

The Group also includes the subsidiary Gruppo Italiano Vini S.p.A., a leading company in the production of quality Italian wines: together, CR&C and GIV produce a total of 200 million bottles per year.

The passion for quality and the drive for innovation brought together Cantine Maschio and P.E. Labellers, giving rise to a success story that is told every day.

The innovative P.E. solutions apply front/back labels, seals, and neck labels to the company's iconic bottles in various formats, ranging from 200 ml to 1.5 l.

Among the different on-machine solutions, special satisfaction comes from the NON Stop system, which allows the company to save an average of 1 hour per day.

Considering Cantine Maschio's production, the entire Cantine Riunite & Civ group labels over 100 million bottles per year thanks to the 6 P.E. Labellers machines installed across its various production sites.
